IN REMOVAL PROCEEDINGS

MOTION

ON BEHALF OF RESPONDENT: Jonathan D. Montag, Esquire

ON BEHALF OF DHS: Martin D. Soblick
Chief Counsel

This case was last before us on February 25, 2003, when we affirmed an Immigration Judge's decision denying the respondents' request for asylum and withholding of removal. Briefly it is noted that this matter has been subject to litigation in the United States Court of Appeals for the (b) (6) and the United States Supreme Court. The respondents and the Department of Homeland Security have filed a joint motion to reopen proceedings and further request that this matter be remanded to the Immigration Judge. The motion to reopen and remand will be granted.

Pursuant to the agreement reached by the parties in the joint motion, the lead respondent is eligible for asylum and the remaining respondents are derivatives to her claim. The parties request that the record be remanded to the Immigration Judge for completion of security and background checks. Accordingly, the following orders will be entered.

ORDER: The joint motion to reopen is granted, and our order dated February 25, 2003, is vacated.

FURTHER ORDER: Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 1003.1(d)(6), the record is remanded to the Immigration Judge for the purpose of allowing the Department of Homeland Security the opportunity to complete or update identity, law enforcement, or security investigations or examinations, and further proceedings, if necessary, and for the entry of an order as provided by 8 C.F.R. § 1003.47(h). See Background and Security Investigations in Proceedings Before Immigration Judges and the Board of Immigration Appeals, 70 Fed. Reg. 4743, 4752-54 (Jan. 31, 2005).
